Adherence to Evidence Based Medicine (AEBM)

Dr Jahan Mahmoodi, Medical Director

Overview

- As an organisation in Special Measures we are required by NHS England to look at everything we spend to enable us to live within our means and ensure we can continue to fund essential services and treatments.
- As part of this on-going review we are looking at the evidence associated with a number of procedures and treatments to see where clinical evidence supports changing thresholds and access criteria.
- Whilst we are doing this because of our financial position the work is clinically led and evidence based.
- Enfield CCG are also leading this work across North Central London with our CCG Colleagues.
- Our formal consultation period started on 1 March and on 31st March.

Scope of Review

We are looking at four main areas:

- The thresholds and criteria associated with existing Procedures of Limited Clinical Effectiveness where the evidence has changed.
- Additional areas that others have identified as being PoLCE that are not currently in the North Central London policy and where we consider it appropriate to review.
- Procedures where the clinical evidence suggests we should make changes to thresholds to improve outcomes for patients.
- The decommissioning of homeopathic treatments at UCLH.

Preparing for the Consultation Process

In preparing for the consultation commencing today we have done a wide range of pre-engagement activities including:

- Discussing this with the Enfield Health & Wellbeing Board and Health Overview and Scrutiny Committee.
- Engaging with Local GPs via a range of events and with our Secondary Care Consultants via the North Central London Clinical Cabinet.
- Undertaking Pre-Engagement Work with our public.
- Working with our CCG colleagues in North Central London and with the NCL Sustainability & Transformation Plan Team.

Next Steps

- We are here to answer your questions and to help you complete the consultation document or you can take the document away and use freepost to return it or alternatively use our online survey.
- We are holding one further public event on 30 March 2017 and also discussing the evidence with Local GPs at our Locality Meetings.
- We will also be taking our NCL CCGs through the same process we are currently undertaking.
